Blackfoot, ID –

Eastern Idaho State Fair exhibitor deadlines are quickly approaching! Now is the chance to submit your award-winning entry to the 2016 Eastern Idaho State Fair. The entry dates for Home Arts Departments vary from August 26 – September 2. All livestock entries are due August 19.

The exhibit opportunities are endless at the Eastern Idaho State Fair with various livestock and home arts departments and categories for people of all ages. Premiums are awarded in each department and the exhibits are seen by everyone who attends the Fair. Those who have never submitted an entry into the Fair may be interested to know that over $150,000 in prize money is given out each year to our exhibitors. That's a lot of moo-la!

The 2016 Fair is the perfect time to submit your first – or fiftieth – fair entry. A hand-sewn quilt or secret family recipe that was once thought of as just a fun project can be put on display for all to see. Have your child work on an art project to enter in the fair as a way to ward off summer boredom before school starts.

To find out how to enter exhibits, go online to www.funatthefair.com, find the “Join In” tab and click on Exhibitors and Competitors. In addition to fill-able entry forms, each department page contains easily accessible, detailed information about entry fees, dates, forms, special rules, classes. Eat, Drink, and Be Happy at the 2016 Fair September 3 – 10!
