The exhibit opportunities are endless at the Eastern Idaho State Fair with various livestock and home art departments and categories for people of all ages. Premiums are awarded in each department, and the exhibits are seen by everyone who attends the Fair. Those who have never submitted an entry into the Fair may be interested to know that over $150,000 in prize money is given out each year to our exhibitors. That's a lot of moo-la!

If this is your first time entering exhibits? Don't be intimidated or overwhelmed by the entry forms and rules. If you have an item you'd like to enter, but you are unsure which category it goes in, call the department superintendent listed in our online Exhibitor Handbook found at <https://funatthefair.com/join-in/exhibitors/>, and they will happily assist you! OR simply bring your item on the correlating entry date, and the department employees will help you with your entry.
